THREE OVERCOME BY SMOKE

Stricken Young Women Carried Down Ladders

OXFORD, Ohio — (Associated Press) — Miss Martha Watkins of Etna, Ohio, was acclaimed the heroine of a fire which partially destroyed a residence used as an auxiliary dormitory of Oxford College here today. She carried her room-mate, Miss Rodman Hayes, who was overcome by smoke, down the front staircase altho the smoke almost blinded her vision and she was perched by flames.

Several of the ten students and three teachers left the second floor by ladders placed by firemen.

Miss Mary Lake, Springfield, Kentucky, and Miss Ruby Richardson, of Cincinnati, were also overcome by smoke and were carried down the ladders. None of the affected by smoke is in a serious condition.

The blaze started from an overheated furnace and spread thru the hot air pipes rising to all parts of the building.

Students residing in the Oxford College Annex were:

Misses Mary Lake, Springfield, R. Helen Ellis, Phoenix, Ariz.; Rodman Hayes, Bloomfield, Ky.; Ruby Richardson, Cincinnati; Mary Belle and Nell Flagle, Milan, Mich.; Martha Watkins, Etna, Ohio; Chas. and Fanny Clays, Lois Osborne, Auburn, W. Va.

WAR DECLARED ON SECRET PACTS

This is Part of England's Labor Party Program.

LONDON — (Associated Press) — Recognition by Great Britain of the independence of Egypt and genuine self-government for India are planks of the policy of the British Labor Party as just defined in an address delivered by Arthur Henderson, secretary of that party and member of Parliament.

Mr. Henderson's statement is regarded as important because of the growing strength of the Labor Party and the plans to hold a general election next spring or summer.

Mr. Henderson declared that labor was out for a new international policy founded on the principles of justice, cooperation and good will.

The chief objects of the Labor Party's foreign policy were, he said, international peace, the building up of stable economic and political conditions in Europe and the re-establishment of friendship and confidence between nations.

Mr. Henderson also stated in favor of a comprehensive League of Nations, a drastic and progressive reduction in armaments, prohibition of private armaments or war by the export of munitions and against secret treaties and the economic boycott.

On the unemployment question, he said, that the policy of leaving localities to bear the burden of unemployment was indefensible because it converted a national duty into a local responsibility.

A labor government would not tolerate the semi-starvation of thousands of British people—which he said the world would endeavor by legitimate means to break down all forms of monopoly and put an end to exploitation and profiteering.

Labor would see that the land was put to socially productive use and confer on the people the power to control the leasing system in their respective localities.

The Party would also, by constitutional means, secure for the community a larger share of the fruits of national production much of which, Mr. Henderson said, went to nourish the "parasites, idlers and parasitical elements in society of today."

Charles Piening was also arraigned on a charge of holding, plead not guilty and is held in $1,000 bond.

Wesley Rash, charged with incest, plead not guilty. Trial date has not been set.

Homer Meyers was also arraigned on a charge of forgery, plead not guilty and is held in $1,000 bond.

'ROUNDHEAD GAS SUPPLY SMALL'

HELD INADEQUATE FOR THIS CITY

Experts Testify Before Utilities Commission

RATE ORDINANCE ATTACKED

Its Validity As An Emergency Is Questioned

That the supply of gas in the Roundhead field, is inadequate to supply the city of Lima is testified to before the public utilities commission, as part of testimony offered in the gas rate controversy between the city and the Lima Natural Gas company.

T. H. Kerr, of the Ohio Fuel Supply company and J. I. Henderson, of the Logan Natural Gas company, told the commission they had examined the Roundhead field.

The flow of the wells, they estimated, is about one-third the amount needed to supply Lima.

Kerr related to the commission how he had visited the field in behalf of his own company, which is seeking gas.

"There is not enough gas there to do anyone any good," he declared.

The Roundhead field was investigated in 1921 by Frank L. Pringle, representing the Lima Natural Gas company.

Pringle said that at that time his company was uncertain that the Medina company would renew its contract.

For this reason they were seeking gas, if a good field could be found. The flow of the wells at that time was about one and one-half million feet. Less than 40 per cent of this flow would be available, the commission was told. Pringle pronounced the field to be absolutely inadequate to supply Lima.

PIPE LINE COST $150,000
Granting that there is a sufficient supply, he told the commission it would cost more than $150,000 to pipe the supply to Lima.

Solicitor Paul T. Landis, based his application for a rehearing of the case on 23 counts.

He presented affidavits from well owners in Roundhead field stating they had gas and were anxious to sell it.

Landis' charge that a secret pact existed between the Medina and Lima companies was not backed up by positive testimony. The charge was branded as groundless and false by Attorney Harry O. Bentley, representing the company.

The commission took the matter under advisement and will announce later whether a rehearing will be granted.

An ordinance fixing a 55 cent rate passed by the city commission and a copy of the city charter, were filed with Landis' application.

The utilities body, it is believed, will rule on the right of the city to change rates already in effect.

The ordinance which became effective Thursday will be ignored by the Lima Natural Gas company.

Frank L. Pringle declared.

Consumers will be billed for gas consumed in February at the rate of $1 a thousand feet.

Even should the ordinance be legal," Pringle declared, "it has nothing to do with the gas burned in February."

VALIDITY IN QUESTION
The question of whether or not the ordinance was passed as an emergency measure may determine its validity. The city charter, prohibiting passage of an ordinance fixing rates to be charged by any public utility as an emergency measure.

General impression is that the rate ordinance was shot thru as an emergency act.

Manager Bingham stated he thought that was the way it was done and several commissioners were of the same opinion.

"It had to be done that way," declared Commissioner Robn, "in this case."

Section 13 of the city charter says "No measure making a grant, renewal or extension of a franchise or other special privilege, or regulating the rate to be charged for its service by any public utility, shall ever be so passed."

Manager Bingham said no attempt will be made immediately to enforce the ordinance.

U. S. AIMS BLOW AT SWINDLERS

Action to Check Financial Wizards is Planned

(BY PAUL R. MALLON)

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — Federal action to save the American people from "financial wizards," confidence men, stock salesmen, and other operators, who are swindling out of a sum estimated by some experts to be close to $100,000,000 a year, is being planned by the government.

The recent exposure of big swindlers in New York and Chicago, the alleged bucket shop activities in New York and the numerous failures of brokerage houses have caused government officials to hasten the framing of their proposed campaign against the swindlers.

Legislative measures have been composed to force enforcement of "blue sky" laws. They are being studied by the federal trade commission and submitted to congress.

APPEAL TO GOVERNORS
Until these laws can be put into operation, Attorney General Daugherty, who has made a widespread investigation of fraudulent business schemes, has issued an appeal to governors of the states to use all their powers against the swindlers.

Daugherty asks that those states which have "blue sky" laws, make every effort to clean their areas of illegitimate oil stock promoters, illicit "bucket shop" operators, "Ponzi," and other get-rich-quick men.

Estimates gathered by the department of justice show that swindling in federal courts through the country involve approximately $150,000,000 of improper stock sales and confidence schemes. These have accumulated during the last few years and there are hundreds of other cases of swindling which have never come before the federal courts.

Hundreds of these agents have operated in the mid-west. The fraudulent financial transactions in Illinois, Kansas and Texas—the three showing the greatest total—reach several million each. The greatest loss is in oil stocks in these districts.

DONAHEY'S HAT IS IN THE RING

New Philadelphia Man is Candidate For Governor

ANNOUNCEMENT IS MADE

Stands For Honesty, Lower Taxes and Economy

Promising that he will stand for lower taxes, economy, constitutional government and common honesty, Vic Donahey of New Philadelphia, Thursday announced his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for Governor of Ohio, subject to the August primary.

IS DEMAND OF PEOPLE
After consulting with leading citizens of state and conferring with many of the rank and file of his own party, Donahey says he is convinced a large proportion of the citizens of Ohio feel that he should make the race again. "It shall be my chief endeavor," Donahey said, "to secure the law, but thru capable selfless administration of the law."

Commenting on the present state of affairs, the New Philadelphia man, who was defeated in the 1920 landslide by a small number of votes, said Thursday: "The weakness of government is in its administration. The most scientifically conceived laws placed in the hands of incompetent officers for administration will fail. Economy in government will not alone come thru the law, but thru capable selfless administration of the law."

OPPOSED TO EMERGENCY
Donahey opposes the enactment of any legislation as an emergency, unless the emergency actually exists, he said. He pledges himself to resist any such action. He believes the rule laid down by the three dissenting judges of the Supreme court, Chief Justice Marshall, Judge R. M. Wainwright and Judge J. G. Johnson, as to what constitutes an emergency, to be the correct rule. Donahey asserts he stands for the untrammelled right of the referendum.

"The present Governor, in 1920," Donahey said, "pledged the people of Ohio that he would reduce the expenditures of state government hundreds of thousands of dollars annually; by increasing the state's direct tax levy, however, he added six million dollars annually to the people's tax burden. This was done notwithstanding the fact that the revenue of the state from indirect taxes has increased on an average of more than two million dollars per year for the past five years. If there ever was a time when the public money should be touched with the greatest scrupulousness of honor, it is now, when thousands of our people are unemployed, our industries running half time and many farmers facing bankruptcy."

COMPENSATION LAW
The workmen's compensation law must be maintained, Donahey declares, but he urges that its administration be taken out of politics by restoring the industrial commission, a non-partisan body, to control over its employees. Donahey also declares against a centralized form of government, such as has been established by the Davis administration.

Declaring that every particle of governmental waste must be stopped and government, state and local, must deny itself and apply the same rigid economy that private business has been compelled to resort to, Donahey says the "recent extravagance" affecting the administration of the highway department of the state is a shame and a reproach.

MILLION DOLLARS FOR BUILDING

Life Insurance Company Makes Available Big Sum

That Lima is to experience a boom in home building is the prediction freely made by realtors, Thursday, following the announcement that a million dollars is available for loans on residence and business property here.

The money will break up frozen credit locally and enable persons desiring to build to proceed at once.

REALTORS BROKEN UP
Realtors and bankers for some time past have been working to get some concern to set aside a large amount of money for property loans in Lima.

The Metropolitan Life Insurance company responded. The Lima Trust company, which is handling the matter, has $1,000,000 to loan on finished houses or business property.

The owner must arrange for surety to erect the building. The Metropolitan will loan up to one-half the value of the land and house.

Fifteen years time can be arranged for on residences with payments of three per cent of the principal with interest semi-annually. Interest rates are seven per cent.

APPLICATIONS COMING
W. R. Foulkes, assistant treasurer of the Lima Trust company, who is familiar with details of the plan, said that a number of applications were being received.

"The Metropolitan plan will loosen 'frozen credit' he said. "Banks are carrying loans that should have been turned over to the building loans a long time ago."

Realtors say the million dollars available will mean much to Lima. Outside capital has been long needed, they declare.

Narcotic Smuggling on Increase, Officers Say

NEW YORK — (United Press)

Determined efforts to break up an international drug ring and apprehend the "brains" of the gang who is believed implicated in the Taylor murder in Los Angeles are being made today by thousands of narcotic police working from coast to coast.

Dr. Carleton Simon chief of the New York narcotic division who originated the inter-city narcotic police communicating system to fight the drug trade, is working in close touch with Los Angeles authorities.

More than 300 arrests of drug peddlers and addicts were made in New York city alone during February, Dr. Simon declared. So far this year there have been 650 arrests. There are estimated to be 400,000 drug users in the United States.

SMUGGLING INCREASES
"The presence of the narcotic trade in Hollywood had long been known to us," said Dr. Simon. "Hollywood, however, is but one point in the long chain of cities supplied by the international drug ring."

"There is no doubt that drug smuggling is on the increase. But we are maintaining an active and successful fight against both illegal sellers and users."

"Narcotics from France, Germany and Japan enter the United States on the east and west coasts, Canada and Mexico are related to all sections of the country."

"Illegal drug vendors have systematized routes for delivering their wares. Opium, heroin and other drugs are criss-crossed about the country by highly organized hands."

POOR FARM WILL ENRICH COUNTY

Unfortunates Watch Liquid Wealth Sprout from Ground

BIG OIL GUSHERS ARE HIT

Inmates Will Profit Nothing From Rich Strike

RISTOW, Okla. — (Special) — In the midst of poverty, of despair, of wrecked hopes, of ruined lives, of broken old age — millions of dollars are spouting out of the earth here.

For oil has been struck in the Creek-coo poor-farm. Two gushers are bringing out from 2000 to 3000 barrels of liquid wealth daily.

The cash value of the farm at sale has leaped to $1,000,000 and Creek-coo commissioners believe oil royalties will net them $5,000,000 in the next 10 years.

All that means life to the inmates of the poor-farm — old people with no one to care for them or younger folks whose physical or mental defects have put them out of the running in life's race.

They sit in a shabby line on the farmhouse porch and watch the earth give up its riches. That's their only pastime.

JOKES ABOUT EYE

One aged inmate jokes about it. "We oughta be wearin' diamonds and fine laments and livin' off the fat of the land pretty soon," he says, and laughs.

The county bought this 150-acre poor-farm a few years ago at $50 an acre. Many thought that price was too high.

Albert Keller, oil operator, was the seller. He retained oil and gas privileges to the tract.

An oil company started drilling on the poor-farm. It drilled 2500 feet, found nothing and abandoned drilling.

Keller decided to deepen the hole. At 3100 feet he found gusher sand! Later another gusher burst forth!

Now two derricks have been erected on the farm. Geologists say the 20 acres occupied by the house and outbuildings, orchard and garden all will produce oil. Twenty wells will be sunk, they say.

During the first 30 days one gusher produced 80,000 gallons of oil. The county receives $2 a barrel royalty.

County commissioners are figuring they can run the county without collecting taxes as long as the poor-farm continues to produce.

Taxpayers are jubilant.

So is Keller.

But the 15 poor-farm charges just sit on the porch — and think what they'd do if they had it.

DEATH OF BABIES AND AGED, PLAN

Fanatic Cult, Originating in Russia Causing Trouble

WINNIPEG, Manitoba — (Special) — Kill off the weak, that the able-bodied may be free to roam the country as vagrants, protest against the taxes levied on them by the government of British Columbia, and preach the coming of Christ.

This plan—the throwing of all children under 10 years old, and all old people into the Columbia River, has been announced by the Doukhobors, a strange sect of religious communists who live in western Canada.

And it has aroused Canadian authorities to the extent that Royal Canadian mounted police are keeping close watch on the Doukhobor settlements.

The Doukhobors came to Canada from Russia in 1898, fleeing from the persecution of the czarist government because of their objection to military service.

7000 FOUND COLONY

About 7000 crossed the ocean and settled on land given them by the Canadian government near Yorkton in northern Saskatchewan. They were pacifists, cared little about education and did not mix with their neighbors. They wished to be let alone, to live their lives in their own way.

Peter Voregin is the leader of the sect. M. Kofitoff is manager of the colony at Brilliant, B. C., and it is from him that the announcement of the drowning scheme came.

Voregin backed up the plan by saying, "Altho the statement of proposals was signed by Kofitoff, yet it had my sanction."

ADD DEATH OF BABIES

The leaders have urged that the property of the colony be liquidated and that the able-bodied strike out as nomads. This proposal is said to have met with much enthusiasm at a mass meeting recently held at Brilliant.

WOULD "EDUCATE WOMEN"

Kofitoff has admitted that he expects the women of the sect to oppose the drowning of children. In that event, according to the leaders, another plan — to educate the women to cause being mothers — has been suggested.

"Taxes are becoming so heavy," says Kofitoff, "that it is not economic to raise children."

In 1900 the Doukhobors started the colony by starting on a "nudity" pilgrimage near Yorkton. Moving as far as the head of Lake Superior they were corralled by Canadian authorities and forced to put on clothes and seek shelter. Two years later this was tried again. More government action and the sect settled down, turned to farming and grew prosperous. No member has received pay for his work—merely food, clothing and shelter.

Voregin, as leader, has accumulated a fortune. He wears modern clothes, makes frequent trips to cities on affairs intelligently on world topics.

Klinger is suing because lumberjacks, employed by the Swisher company, are alleged to have ruined a magnificent grove of trees on his farm near West Cape.

AMERICAN LEGION AND WOMEN'S AUXILIARY TO PLAN NEW HEADQUARTERS

Allen-co service men, members of the American Legion and Women's auxiliary, will hold a meeting at Stein hall Friday night, to discuss the matter of renting permanent club rooms.

Growth of the Legion has been so rapid that the post has outgrown its quarters in the Gramm-Bernstein club. There are some 2,000 other service men in Allen-co who either are members of other posts or have not joined.

The Women's auxiliary of Paul Gallagher post numbers more than 150. Until recently the auxiliary has held its meetings in Memorial hall, but there is no longer available room there.

The meeting Friday night is to determine whether the organizations have sufficient finances to rent permanent quarters. No appeal will probably be made to others than ex-service men.

HITCHCOCK HITS "SECRET PACT"

Four-Power Treaty Attacked by Nebraska Senator

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, ranking Democrat on the senate foreign relations committee, declared in an address to the senate today, opening debate on the four-power Pacific treaty, that he could not support it unless amendments or reservations were adopted to meet his objections.

Senator Hitchcock, opening the discussion because he expects to be absent a few days later, attacked what he described as the secrecy with which the four power treaty was negotiated. He declared he had voted for ratification of the Yaptreaty yesterday and would support the naval and Chinese treaties.

"But I have reluctantly come to the conclusion that I cannot vote for the ratification of the four-power treaty unless changes are made by amendment or reservations are adopted to have certain objections removed," he added.

"This treaty was conceived in a secret and its genesis suggests an old-fashioned and highly objectionable alliance."

"My first shock was to learn that the president who issued the call for the conference did not understand the treaty and had not learned of the secret agreement between the negotiators regarding the inclusion of the Japanese mainland," said the Nebraska senator, who said that these had been "cured" by the later treaty of definition.

Senator Hitchcock said that in order for the treaty to receive his support an amendment or reservation would have to be adopted declaring the obligation to deal only with "unprovoked" aggressions.

Senator Borah, of Idaho, Republican irreconcilable, entered the debate to declare that reservations could not meet the situation and that amendment would be required.

Senator Pence, of Maryland, another Republican, warmly endorsed the treaty and declared that he had served definite notice of hostility to the treaty.

AUTOMOBILE TAX DOES NOT APPLY

No Special Levy on Parents Who Transport School Children

Pereous who transport to school their own children or their neighbors' children and those who live along the route, under the law passed by the Ohio-legislature which requires boards of education to transport children, are not subject to the occupational tax imposed by Section 1001 of the Revenue Acts of 1913 and 1921.

This ruling has been given by D. H. Blair, commissioner of internal revenue, after an investigation made upon request of Congressman John L. Cable.

Glen Drummond, superintendent of Auglaize-co, informed Cable that the internal revenue department was assessing a special tax upon parents employed by boards of education to transport their own and neighbors' children who live along their routes, to high school and return. Such tax was added to the cost of the board of education, Drummond stated.

Section 1001 provides: "Persons carrying on the business of operating for hire passenger automobiles for hire shall pay $10 for each such automobile having a seating capacity of more than two and not more than seven and $20 for each such automobile having a seating capacity of more than seven."

It is held by the commissioner that persons transporting children under the circumstances named are not engaged in the calling or operating of renting passenger automobiles for the purpose of a livelihood or profit and hence are not subject to the occupational tax.

There are many such cases in every county in the state, it is stated, and the special tax can now be levied only where transportation of children is carried on by persons for the purpose of a livelihood or for profit.

CITY MANAGER DECLARES FOR PAVING UNIFORMITY

Paving material selected for seven streets on which bids were received by the city Wednesday, will be chosen in accord with the type used in the locality.

Such is the verdict of Manager C. A. Bazham, who asserts there is no use in having several different sorts of pavement in one street.

Property owners may not be given a chance to determine what sort of material is to go in front of their homes, as was the case last year.

REMOVAL OF GOV. REILY ASKED

Charges Preferred Against Porto Rico Executive

INSULT TO FLAG CLAIMED

Sentiments of the People Declared Disregarded

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — Demand for a congressional investigation of the acts and conduct of Governor F. Mont Reily of Porto Rico, looking to his removal from office, was made in the house today by Delegate Felix Cordova Davila, resident commissioner of Porto Rico. Declaring the people he represented asked that this step be taken "only after the Harding administration was given free opportunity to act," Mr. Davila, who is a member of the Unionist party of the island, expressed the belief that if Governor Reily should be called as a witness before an investigating committee "he, himself, will be the best evidence of the justice of our demand for his removal."

MEANS EXHAUSTED

Preceding a long series of charges against the governor, Mr. Davila told the house that while he believed President Harding made a mistake in appointing him, he knew the president was imposed upon, and therefore the appointment was not made.

"Knowing fully or with the least malice toward the people of Porto Rico," he added, however, that we "have exhausted all of our means to obtain the removal of the governor by the administration."

Mr. Davila charged among other things:

That Governor Reily "announced publicly that he intends to make $200,000 during the next four years in office, whereas the salary as governor is $10,000."

That he has endeavored to "stir up strife and discord among the citizens," that he unlawfully "interfered with the courts of justice and attempted to intimidate judges"; that in public speeches he uttered disregard of the feelings and sentiments of the citizens and denounced the flag of Porto Rico as "a dirty rag"; that he declared to members of the senate he would have the government at Washington "annul the organic act," which provides that the senate shall ratify appointments, "unless the nominations were confirmed, which amounts to intimidation," and that he has attempted to "poison the mind and prejudice public opinion in the United States" by stating in public speeches that prominent Porto Ricans were disloyal and traitors.

"HOLD ON HARDING"

Governor Reily, Mr. Davila said, "boasts of his strong influence with the president of the United States."

"I am a very influential man," he quoted Reily as saying. "Asked by the president why he did not make appointments, Reily told me he replied 'Mr. President, you are the boss' and the president said, 'Mont, bring the names and I will sign.'"

"The administration of Governor Reily has been a succession of insults to the people. When he went to this island he found a land of peace and happiness and almost overnight he transformed it into a hotbed of dissension and despair. He could have had the everlasting friendship and affection of Porto Ricans of all classes had he possessed the least qualification to be their governor. And I say to you in full truth, we can stand no more. The moment has come when our self-respect rebels. We appeal to you for relief from this administration."

permanent station may be abandoned and training concentrated on the Atlantic and Pacific coasts. Naval officers here expect the appropriation for the fiscal year starting July 1 to be considerable, under the $400,000 provided for the present year, and probably only enough to provide men to guard the $5,000,000 worth of government property at the station. To guard the immense plant and provide officers for the two naval schools here, one turning out aviation mechanics and the other radio operators, would require about 700 officers and men and an estimated appropriation of between $200,000 and $250,000.

NEW BONUS PLAN ATTACK LIKELY

Mellon Expected to Oppose Insurance Scheme

SATISFIES LEGION CHIEFS

May Protest Cash Payment Elimination, However

(BY CARL D. GROUT)
WASHINGTON—(United Press)—American Legion leaders here are satisfied with the house bonus sub-committee proposal to drop the cash bonus, provided a workable insurance certificate plan, with the privilege of borrowing money on the certificate is substituted.

They stated this to the United Press today, adding that while they may make a protest to keep the record straight—on elimination of cash payments, they do not now plan any campaign against the proposed committee method.

PLAN OF LOAN
As the house drafters are aiming now on all or unemployed man or others actually requiring cash, could get a loan from a bank at once up to 50 per cent of the amount allotted for his term of service on a $1 a day basis. If he defaulted payment the bank would turn to the treasury and get its advance with interest back at the close of three years from the date of passage of the bill.

The Legion leaders contend the insurance certificates would really mean more to the average man than cash which he might squander. The certificate would mean something for old age, but it could tide over hard times now as well.

MELLON TO BE CALLED

At the same time house leaders said the proposed elimination of the cash bonus means prevention of disturbance to the national finance system in the next two years when a stable situation is needed for refunding of maturing government securities and prevention of any move for pensions.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon will be called before the committee again. He is likely to offer objections, among which probably will be that of inflation of the currency through the loans on certificates.

Representative Longworth said if all service men took certificates and held them, the financing cost would be $5,000,000,000, but he estimates with other committee members that the cost will be considerably lower, since many of the certificates will be closed out thru defaulted loans before maturity of the insurance.

'Y.W.' CONFERENCE COMES TO CLOSE

Bigness of Movement Appeals to Volunteer Workers

The outstanding feature of the annual midwinter two-day conference of the Lima Y. W. C. A., which came to a close Wednesday night, with a banquet at Trinity M. E. church, was the bigness of the movement, the responsibility to volunteer workers and the christian purpose in all the activities of the Y. W. C. A.

One hundred and fifty were present for the final session. Miss Alice R. Marsh, general secretary of the Dayton Y. W. C. A. spoke on "Our World Fellowship Share," outlining the work of the religious training of our physical directors in China and the physical education and development of women.

Miss Margaret Sylla, of Chicago, presented the message of the national convention to be held in Hot Springs, April 27-29, in such a manner that interest of workers was aroused, in anticipation Miss Gale Parmenter, delegate to the national convention in Cleveland two years ago, detailed the work of the national body.

Employed girls and students of the high school told what the Y. W. C. A. means to them. The speakers were Miss Florence Lubbock and Miss Dorothy Moore.

Miss Anna Rice, national secretary for New York City, spoke on "Religious Education." Miss Rice emphasized the necessities that have come up thru contact with women in industrial development problems.

Mrs. A. S. King and Mrs. P. J. Hobart gave piano duets.

ST. MARYS MAN NAMED AUGLAIZE-CO RECORDER

WAPAKONETA — The situation here in connection with the office of recorder of Auglaize-co is further complicated by the appointment of Roy Hawkey of St. Marys, to fill the place vacated by Andrew Lambert.

When that official was named by the commissioners as county treasurer, filling a vacancy caused by the death of George Katterhenry.

The recorder job was offered to H. Stewart Jenkins and later to Bruff Hamilton of St. Marys, but was refused by both. Stanley Brandewie, deputy recorder, was appointed temporarily. Whether he will gracefully step down in favor of Hawkey is not apparent Thursday.

NAVY RESERVE TO BE REORGANIZED

Complete Shake-up of Service Called for in Bill

PROVIDES MERCHANT FLEET

Branches Divided Up in Several Different Classes

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — Complete reorganization of the naval reserve is proposed in a tentative bill prepared by the navy department and forwarded to officials of the Naval Reserve Association by Secretary Denby for comment, before it is presented to congress. Included in the proposed act is the provision for a merchant marine reserve section and for certain merchant ships to fly a reserve emblem.

The bill would abolish all existing naval or marine corps reserves and establish a naval reserve as a "component part" of the navy, consisting of three classes, the fleet reserve, the merchant marine naval reserve and the volunteer naval reserve.

MARINE CORPS
A separate section provides for reorganization of the present marine corps reserve in conformity with the new plan. It would have two classes corresponding to the fleet reserve and the volunteer reserve of the naval establishment.

Enlistments in the reserve would be four years, while officers would hold their commissions "during the pleasure of the president."

Reservists of the first two classes could be ordered to duty by the president in time of war or national emergency to serve thruout the war or emergency, but in time of peace could be called out only with their own consent, except for prescribed training. The volunteer reserve would be liable for war duty only.

BENEFITS PROVIDED
Any officer or enlisted man of the reserve injured in line of duty while on active, training or volunteer service, would be entitled to regular service benefits.

In peace time the fleet reserve would be required to give fifteen days training service annually, receiving regular pay for that period.

Lieutenant Commanders and officers of lower rank of the fleet reserve would be discharged into the volunteer reserve at 55 years and captains at 60 years.

To fill up the fleet reserve, authority would be given to require trials with 1,923. First Reformed, Lima, is showing equally good team work and may upset the Church of Christ at Beaver Dam, in the next weekly report.

Market Street Brotherhood gained 709 points during the week; Loyal Gleaners of Beaver Dam Church of Christ, 594; Loyal Women of the same church secured 583 credits and divided honors with the Advance Guards, the men of the Second Baptist church, Lima, for fourth place.

The Friendly Women's class of the First Congregational church, Lima, made a fine showing, with 2,455 credits. The Men's Class of Epworth M. E. is only 34 points behind.

The campaign is the most successful of its kind ever undertaken in the county, according to Kattner. It will continue until Easter and will furnish the necessary machinery for the pre-Easter campaign, that most churches desire to launch. MARKET-ST CLASS IN FIRST PLACE

Leaders in Four-Square Campaign Now in Third Place

More than 90 classes are reporting from week to week in the Four-Square campaign for the Adult Bible classes of Allen-co, according to F. C. Kattner, district director.

Some of the results approach the miracle stage, according to Kattner. The Market Street Brotherhood class reported a start with 20 men. In the last meeting they had 80 men enrolled and 76 present. By means of systematic work in all the phases they lead all classes with a total of 3,063 points.

The members of the First Reformed church, Lima, secured 2,864 credits and thus defeated the Booster Bible class which had been leading up to this week. Booster Bible now has 2,839 credits. The Church of Christ, Beaver Dam, is showing the highest type of team work, Kattner states, by having most of its classes run close together. Three classes are over the 2,500 column, while one trails with 1,923. First Reformed, Lima, is showing equally good team work and may upset the Church of Christ at Beaver Dam, in the next weekly report.

Market Street Brotherhood gained 709 points during the week; Loyal Gleaners of Beaver Dam Church of Christ, 594; Loyal Women of the same church secured 583 credits and divided honors with the Advance Guards, the men of the Second Baptist church, Lima, for fourth place.

The Friendly Women's class of the First Congregational church, Lima, made a fine showing, with 2,455 credits. The Men's Class of Epworth M. E. is only 34 points behind.

The campaign is the most successful of its kind ever undertaken in the county, according to Kattner. It will continue until Easter and will furnish the necessary machinery for the pre-Easter campaign, that most churches desire to launch. It is promoted by the Allen County Sunday School association, with F. C. Kattner of the state association and A. S. Chenoweth of the local organization.

Chief of Police Dawson said no arrangements were made for the other two shifts. The first squad had no knickers, shirts or any other athletic clothing, but were provided with shoes.

Dawson said the suits which were ordered for the men will not be received until Saturday.

No arrangements were announced for the fire department.

THEO KARLE AMERICAS GREAT TENOR TO APPEAR AT MEMORIAL HALL MARCH 7TH. UNDER THE AUSPICES OF THE WOMANS MUSIC CLUB

There is an American singer who stands the test of the one word characterization. That singer is Theo Karle. He is youth.

In his five surprising seasons before the public, Theo Karle has brought to the art of the concert stage nothing that does not reveal the vital force of being young. His voice, a splendid natural instrument and used by him with a happy distinction, his manner, engaging and gracious, his pleasing appearance—all these characteristics are somehow heightened and controlled by a pervading spirit of abundant and youthful enthusiasm. To hear him is to know the joy of song, to feel the irresistible spirit of youth knocking at the doors of toiling age. His is the music of new, unconquered worlds, his the laughter of the young gods.

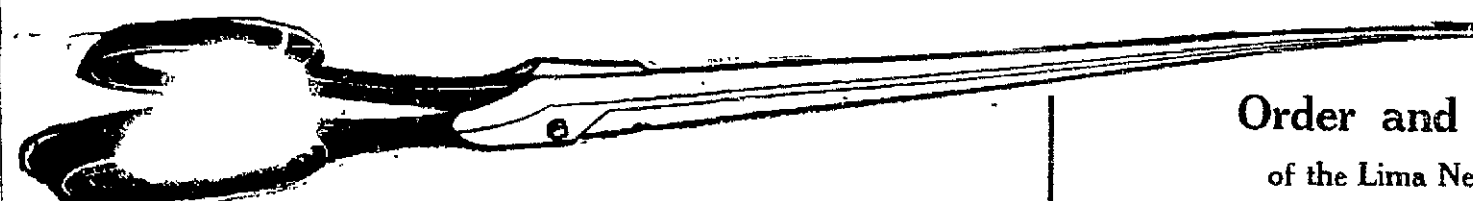

It is small wonder then that he is always popular—this frank young American with the voice that thrills you. Theo Karle is a natural favorite of the concert stage. He is youth.

Seats reserved for club members March 6th.

Seeds reserved for non-club members March 7th.

Theo Karle sings exclusively for the Brunswick Records. Hear him sing "Macushla," "Mavis" and "Little Mother of Mine," and the reason for his choice of Brunswick becomes apparent, he wanted Brunswick methods and standards of tone reproduction.

CHEAPER STREET PAVING

BIDS received by the city commission for the paving of streets in Lima, the first of bids of figures for a major improvement since the new form of government became effective, are reflective of a condition.

During the years of the war, when prices of material and labor quickly mounted, there was very little public improvement, save absolutely necessary things to be done. There was a slackening up all along the line, while every effort was being lent in providing the things needed by a country at war.

With the cessation of hostilities, stopping the flow of materials and the completion of contracts, production was forced to seek an outlet in channels that are born of peace-time pursuits. Less demand for labor, shortened requirement of materials and finished products, have had their certain effect on the industrial situation.

With the coming of mild weather conditions, making possible the opening of outdoor activities on a large scale, contractors know that there will be no difficulty in securing better prices on materials, and that there will be no dearth of labor, at a cost less than for years past.

In fact, quotations on which contractors base their bids are such as to make it possible for greatly lessened estimates. This means that the opportunity will be afforded for the employment of labor now idle and that more public improvement projects can be taken thru to a successful conclusion, at much less expense than heretofore.

Under these circumstances, Lima property owners are willing and anxious for a resumption of public work.

GETTING RICH

MARY PICKFORD'S income for two years was $1,123,625, according to court testimony in New York.

The president of the United States makes that much in 15 years.

The average unskilled day laborer in eastern steel mills, making 20 cents an hour, would have to toil 2265 years to earn as much as Mary gets in two years.

Salaries of movie stars are almost as great marvels as the actual moving picture invention.

The tremendous incomes of movie stars illustrate a point that should be indelible in the brain of any one trying to get rich. This is the point:

If Mary Pickford, for instance, appeared on the stage and had only one person or a few for an audience, her income would be only a few dollars a day. Such performers were the professional story-tellers of medieval Bagdad or modern Japan.

Then a theater is built and Mary can play to a couple of thousand people at each performance. Her income increases, abreast of the number she serves.

The invention of the moving picture has enabled Mary to appear before an unlimited number of audiences simultaneously. Each member contributes his mite. The total of mites swells into an enormous salary for the performer.

The principle behind all this is the application of mass production to human service—the performing of service for the greatest number of people.

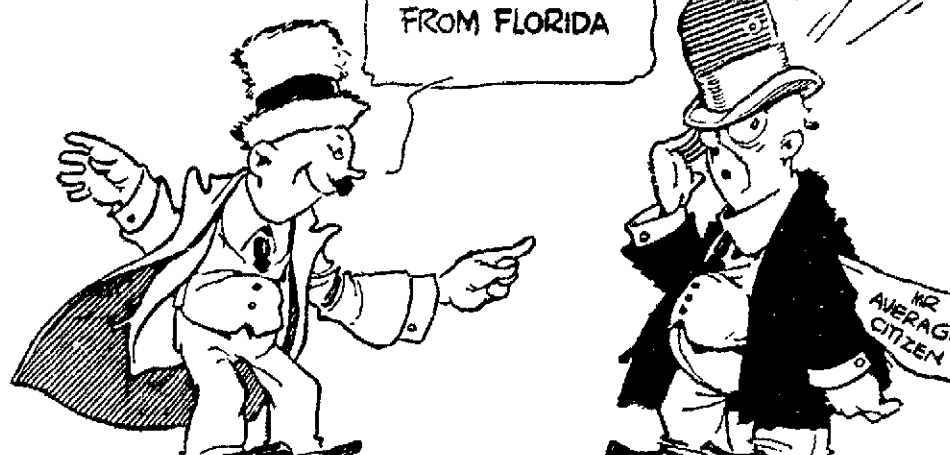

The more people you assist or entertain, the greater your income.

Often you comment along these lines: Einstein, a super-scientist of the sort that appears only once in centuries, makes less money than the inventor of some trifling thing like the Eskimo pie, ice cream cone or safety pin.

The answer to this is that Einstein serves only a small and limited number of customers—scientists—while the other inventors serve millions, each contributing his mite to the inventor.

In any scheme to get rich, don't forget the importance of doing something that will serve a great multitude.

There is infinitely more wealth in inventing a shoe-lace with a tip that can't come off, than in originating a costly fashion or anything else that can have only a limited number of customers.

Greatest profits come from serving the greatest numbers. Henry Ford found that out, long ago.

WEATHER SUPERSTITION

It has always been so and probably always will be, so long as time obtains and man continues to inhabit the earth—a certain percentage of the populace will attach unfeeling belief to popular weather superstitions.

March, named for the Roman god, Mars, is again on the scene. It is looked upon as certain to afford a double fortnight of disagreeable weather conditions; stormy and blustery and undesirable—and it generally runs true to form and lives up to its reputation.

There is not a month in the calendar year to which some superstition does not attach itself. Many persons who would resent the imputation that they are the least bit superstitious, have no hesitancy at all in joining the innumerable throng who believe that when the first day of March is stormy and blustery, the closing days will be warm and balmy. Hence the popular belief concerning "the lion and the lamb."

Consequently, in view of the fact that March came on the scene in a very lion-like manner, it will make its departure like a lamb. Those who believe in weather-signs, note the thickness of bark on trees or note the heavy or light covering of animals with fur and fowls with feathers as being infallible forecasts of weather conditions to come, are among those who believe in the groundhog, the seven Sundays of rain following Easter fallacy and a lot of other such nonsense.

Back in the so-called dark ages, when superstition ran riot and witches were burned at the stake, it is doubtful if belief in signs was more firmly fixed generally than it is in this day with large numbers of individuals. Centuries of civilization, of education and enlightenment have failed to eliminate weather superstition.

Common Sense Ways to Keep Well

WATER WITH MEALS

(BY DR. E. H. BISHOP)

It is surprising how many old traditions about eating are being broken down these days. There is that old bogey we used to hear so often, "Don't drink water with your meals."

Now we learn that the normal person should drink all the water he wishes with his meals. It has even been found that drinking water with the meals helps the digestion.

Various materials which are poisonous are then flushed out of the system and harmful bacteria do not thrive so well in the large intestine. However, if you are a pronounced invalid and have some trouble such as ulcer of the stomach or trouble with the kidneys, it would be well to consult a physician before drinking much water with meals.

There are some types of kidney trouble which are benefited by drinking large quantities of water, whereas other types might perhaps be aggravated in some way.

The drinking of water immediately before a meal is good practice. It causes the appearance of digestive juices in the stomach. Then when the food reaches the stomach it is more rapidly digested than it would have been otherwise.

The drinking of a glass of hot water immediately before breakfast is especially good. If we drink a proper amount of water we make it unnecessary for the body to dilute the contents of the bowel. Here then is a saving in energy.

Water may be taken freely on an empty stomach, midway between meals, by normal healthy men and women. It is preferable, however, to do most of your water drinking at meal time, since a volume of gastric juice in the stomach between meals serves no purpose.

LETTERS FROM OUR READERS

Editor The Lima News:

I notice an item in your paper which states that all efforts made by the Chamber of Commerce and others interested in Lima, to induce the Woolworth company to erect a structure of more than two stories in height, have failed.

The writer is not the owner of business property here, but he is the possessor of a home and is very much interested in the growth of this city in the future. That a concern of such great wealth and wide activity as the Woolworth company should place such a damper on community development here is something more than I can understand.

They have secured a lease on what is considered the most prominent corner of the city, for the erection of a two-story structure. No matter how attractive it may be architecturally, such a building will be nothing more nor less than an eyesore, when it is considered that the tendency of everyone else is to add to the skyline in the downtown district.

Backwardness of Main-st property owners has forced the opening of a new sky-scraper district on Elizabeth-st and unless there is an awakening among the owners of valuable property on Lima's oldest business street, other parts of the downtown section will develop to the extent that business activities will be drawn more and more away from Main-st. I feel that efforts to induce the Woolworth people to erect a more pretentious structure should not be abandoned.

A LIMA BOOSTER.

Editor The Lima News:
In regard to an article in your paper of February 28, concerning the employment of a city electrical inspector, I would like to call attention to the fact that Mansfield, a city smaller than Lima, has a city electrical inspector and that the office is self-sustaining.

A fee is charged contractors for permits. That includes the cost of inspection. Every time the inspector has to re-inspect a job, the contractor is required to pay for it, provided the inspector had placed a red tag or rejective notice on it. In Mansfield they pay the inspector $2,000 a year and furnish him with a car. In 1919 they took in $2,600 from permits. I think a man of ten years' experience would be the logical man for the inspectorship, as he would not permit them to get away with some of the work that has been going on in Lima.

I would like also to suggest that electricians be required to take an examination.

POEMS YOU WILL ENJOY

(BY BERTON BRALEY)

HERE THEY ARE:

What's become of Helen, she whom Homer sang about,
Whose beauty burned men's hearts away and ravaged all the world?
Mingled with the ashes of the "topless towers of Ilium," Helen's dust is common dust that in the wind is whirled!

What's become of Guenevere, paramour of Lancelot,
Guenevere whose loveliness was ivory and rose?
Guenevere is garden loam, clay to nourish daffodils,
Or highway dust, like Helen's dust, that every zephyr blows!

What's become of Katherine, Katherine imperial,
Queen of all the Russias and insatiable in love?
Dust beneath the droshky wheels blown about the city streets
She who once was Katherine, queen all queens above!

Katherine and Guenevere, Helen Homer sang about,
Gone their bodies marvellous, wholly dead and done,
Yet their magic lives again, lives in you, who are to me
Katherine and Guenevere and Helen—all in one!

TRY MAGNESIA FOR STOMACH TROUBLE

It Neutralizes Stomach Acidity, Ferments Food, Relieves Sour Gas, Indigestion.

Doubtless if you are a sufferer from indigestion you have already tried peppermint, pepsin, charcoal, drugs and various digestive aids and you know these things will not cure your trouble—in some cases do not even give relief.

Before giving up hope and deciding you are a chronic dyspeptic, just try the effect of a little Bismarck Magnesia—not the ordinary commercial carbonate, citrate, or milk, but the pure Bismarck Magnesia which you can obtain from practically any druggist in either powder or tablet form.

Take a teaspoonful of the powder or two compressed tablets with a little water after your next meal, and you will find a difference. This makes it instantly neutralize the dangerous, harmful acid in the stomach which now causes your food to ferment, sour, making gas, wind, flatulence, heartburn and the bloated or heavy, lumpy feeling in the stomach to follow most everything you eat.

You will find that provided you take a little Bismarck Magnesia immediately after a meal, you can eat almost anything and enjoy it without any danger of pain or discomfort to follow and moreover the continued use of the Bismarck Magnesia cannot injure the stomach in any way so long as there are any symptoms of acid indigestion.—Adv.

MARCH RUNNING TRUE TO FORM

March is running true to form. The first day of the month was blustery, cold and featured by snow and sleet. The second is prolific of more desirable conditions, albeit rigidity remains and flurries of snow continued thruout the day.

Promise for tonight is cloudy and colder in south-west portion. Friday is to be fair and slightly warmer in west and north portions. Weather situation attaches itself to the month of March in various ways. Beliefs are firmly fixed and it is taken for granted that mild and balmy conditions will exist during the latter part of the month.

Most everyone you meet is hopeful that the month will get out of its system its weather vagaries early, so that garden making may be a safe feature of the latter end of the double fortnight.

At any rate, garden seed salesmen continue their booster campaign, despite the existence of the present cold wave.

ROBBERY CHARGED TO PAUL REIFF

Lima Office Supply Store Safe Rifled of Check and Cash

Charged with breaking into the Lima Office & Supply company store, 108 S. Elizabeth-st., Wednesday night and rifling a safe and snatching the store, Paul Reiff, 21, of Hamilton, was arrested Thursday morning at his room in the Y. M. C. A. by plainclothesmen Ross Landfair and Tom Lawlor.

He is suspected of stealing $18.30 in cash, which was contained in a cloth sack in the safe, a check for $32.50 issued to Miss Mary Place, and a quantity of pencils, ink, erasers and other small articles of office paraphernalia.

Until a week ago Wednesday Reiff was employed at the supply company store, police say. He worked there several months and was discharged, according to M. N. Shreve, manager, for a series of thefts of small articles.

Suspicion pointed to him when it was found the safe had been opened by someone who knew the combination, the officers stated.

In Reiff's room at the Y. M. C. A. was found a large part of the stolen property including some of the money, police asserted, but the check was not discovered. A charge of petit larceny was lodged against Reiff.

Entry to the building was made thru a window at the rear. The lock was pried loose by inserting a heavy instrument, according to police.

Snuffles are bothersome, especially so when accompanied by too much liquor, police agree, but that gives no person a right to what "Bum" O'Neal, 23, of S. Union-st., is charged with.

Plainclothesmen Taylor and Hargrove grabbed "Bum" at his home Wednesday on a warrant sworn out by Clara Wagner, one of the owners of the Lake Erie hotel, 709 S. Main-st., who says that not only was "Bum" drunk, but he "blew his mouth" in one of the hotel table cloths Tuesday night.

SWINDLERS CLEAN UP FORTUNE

Wire-Tappers Prey on Visitors at Winter Resorts

CONFIDENCE GAME WORKED

Victims Lose $2,500,000—Florida Governor Acts

FT. LAUDERDALE, Fla. — (Special) — Governor Cary Hardee and other state officials are making determined efforts to break up the gangs of wire-tappers and other confidence men that infest this state. Operations of these crooks during the past year have swindled wealthy guests from the north out of more than $2,500,000.

Recent raids here, which resulted in the arrest of a dozen men, believed among the leaders in one of the gangs and the closing of one of the wire-tapping "stores," is only the beginning of the state's activities, officials say.

Governor Hardee wasted no time when he learned of the huge sums the confidence men had obtained. "We'll clean 'em out," he said.

He didn't order out the militia or call an army of deputy sheriffs. He picked a man in whom he had confidence, wore him in as a deputy and told him to "get" the swindlers.

Robert Shackelford, the man Hardee had chosen, began a quiet investigation. A week or two later he dropped into Ft. Lauderdale.

DISCOVERS EVIDENCE
"I'd like about 20 or 30 deputies immediately," he said, walking into the sheriff's office. Within a few minutes a score of citizens, picked up in the streets and sworn in, were on their way with Shackelford to a fine two-story house, almost in the center of the city.

The place was surrounded and Shackelford entered alone, demanding the surrender of the occupants.

Within an hour 12 men, ranging in age from 20 to 75 and in appearance from thugs to capitalists, were behind the bars. Inside the house was found a complete equipment of blackboards, telegraph instruments, fake money and all the other usual apparatus of wire-tappers.

Judge Fred Shippey fixed maximum bail, so high that only three could pay it.

Governor Hardee later ordered Sheriff A. W. Turner of Broward-co, in which Ft. Lauderdale is located, to resign his office. The governor's statement says Turner was removed because he refused to raid the wire-tappers' den altho he knew it existed.

WIRE-TAPPING POPULAR

Altho all kinds of swindling games have been worked on rich winter visitors to Florida by these bands of crooks, the wire-tapping game was not the most popular.

This method was the luring of victims into what purported to be the tapping of telegraph wires to obtain race results before the results were generally known to the public.

The corporation was organized in 1919 and began operations in August, 1921.

this house is in a good neighborhood to add "class" to the appearance.

The victim is lured to this "store" and by subtle methods is led to believe he has won large sums. No cash is required of the victim during the betting, his checks being accepted, but after the "winning" had been announced, the "cashier" would demand that the "winner" give evidence of his financial responsibility by producing a certified check or cash to the amount of the money originally bet. Once the swindlers got their hands on this cash or certified check, the victim either is slugged or enticed away until the swindlers escape.

The whole scheme is so carefully laid out and so methodically worked that scores of the wealthiest men in the north have fallen for it.

Bankers say they have repeatedly warned these rich men that they were being duped, but in most cases have been told not to interfere. In a few days the victims came back, panic-stricken, but too late to recover their money.

The real backers of the swindling gangs now infesting the winter resorts are believed by officials to be wealthy criminals living in the east. They are said to recruit their "store" men from the ranks of criminals and to carefully train them for their parts. No "store" man is allowed to operate, officials say, they have learned, without at least a year of observation.

JAMES R. DUNLAP DEATH VICTIM

Father of T. Reed Dunlap Dies at Home in Cleveland

James R. Dunlap, 58, father of T. Reed Dunlap, 407 S. Cole-st., died Wednesday night at 7 o'clock at his winter home, on Prospect-av., in Cleveland. Death was due to paralysis. He was stricken two years ago and suffered another attack Wednesday, which precipitated his death within a few hours.

Dunlap had been a resident of Hardin-co nearly his entire life. He was owner of a large farm near West Newton on the Allen-Hardin co line, where the family sided during the summer months. He was prominently identified with business affairs in Lima. He was a stockholder and until recently was a member of the board of directors of the Old National Bank of this city. He was well known to many Lima people, frequently visiting here. He was interested in banking and business affairs in Kipton and Hardin-co.

He is survived by his widow, and seven children. The children are Mrs. William H. Miller, of Cleveland; Wilbur Dunlap, residing on the farm near West Newton; T. Reed Dunlap, of Lima; Miss Mabel Dunlap, of Peoria, Ill.; Mrs. Claire Holmes, of Los Angeles, Calif.; Mrs. Bert Kirtz, of Marion; James Dunlap, Jr., of Cleveland.

He is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Rachael Dempster, of Lima. The body will be removed Friday to the Dunlap farm near West Newton, where funeral services will be held on Sunday, at an hour to be announced later. Interment will take place in the Pleasant Hill cemetery.

FATE OF PREMIER IN BALANCE

Conservatives Decide Today on Lloyd George Action

CONFIDENCE VOTE ASKED

Follows Prime Minister's Threat To Resign

(BY ED L. KEEN)
LONDON — (United Press) — British Conservative party leaders met here today in a secret session upon which the fate of Premier Lloyd George and the coalition government depended.

The session followed a conference between Austen Chamberlain, official leader of the party, and Sir George Younger, chairman of the Unionist party organization, known as the "man behind the throne."

The premier's adherents were optimistic. They believed the conservative "die hards" are nervous. The Younger faction, they said, is beginning to realize that it is the premier's name, rather than the conservative majority, which is the real backbone of the coalition government.

CONFIDENCE VOTE ASKED
Lloyd George's letter to Chamberlain, conceived by many here as a threat to resign unless the Conservatives ceased personal attacks, has precipitated the trouble.

The prime minister, according to leaders of the Unionist party, has asked a quest vote of confidence and their secret meeting today was to determine their attitude.

The outcome of today's meeting will furnish a further definition of the incident of the premier's letter which came as a "bomb shell" to many politicians here yesterday.

Talk of a general election which must come some time this year has been revived. The resignation of Lloyd George, if the premier really carried out his alleged threat, would not necessarily force this at once, it was said. Tentative plans have been made by the coalition to have the test of strength in April, when conditions are somewhat better than at present.

BALFOUR MAY SUCCEED

Arthur J. Balfour would be the probable successor to the premiership if Lloyd George quit. This, however, is the most extreme political gossip. There was every likelihood today that the whole matter would be patched up by outspoken Unionist support of Lloyd George. The Conservatives at their meeting today, held all the cards, however. Austen Chamberlain, titular leader; Arthur J. Balfour and others of the "elder statesmen" of the conservative party were determined to support the premier. Sir George Younger, who is the nearest approach to a British political "boss" on Tammany lines, altho a millionaire, was the man whose influence was most dangerous to Lloyd George.

Younger, a party "whip" leads the "die hards," 50 in number, who opposed the Irish settlement, the independence of Egypt and every other liberal move on the part of the premier. Sir George is over 70 years old and leaves the active work and routine matters to Colonel Leslie Wilson.

He is an out-and-out opponent of Lloyd George, and a split at this time unwelcome to most conservatives would find him a ready leader of the opposition.

The Unionist "die hards" do not hold a balance of power. They can scarcely hope to elect a premier if there is a good general election. But at their meeting today they can decide to goad Lloyd George into resigning or can force an immediate general election. It will be more a test of strength within the Unionist ranks than of the coalition as a whole.

The WRONG FACE

ISABEL OSTRANDER

BEGIN HERE TODAY

FAY TUDOR, wealthy orphan, suffers a nervous breakdown in France after the news of the death in battle of her brother. She returns to the Tudor estate on Sandy Cove. She is met by a new aunt, CLARA TUDOR, and the latter's daughter, LAUREL.

The summer colony is frequented by a crowd of "twild" people whom Fay believes she has seen in the windows of the Tudor estate. Sheriff Hulce and his friend, SHERIFF JOHN BARRY, a New York detective, investigate Fay's attack by the personality of the CAPTAIN WARREN, her brother's friend, who was with Wilbur when he died. On the night of Mrs. Tudor's death, KENNETH CLAYTON, wealthy philanthropist, who is thought to be in love with Mrs. Tudor, proposes to Fay. She rejects him. After the dance, Fay confesses to Clara that she is in love with Harry Cadmus, an old love of Fay's but for whom she no longer loves. Fay congratulates Laurel, who wishes her happiness and the two prepare to retire. Laurel to close the windows.

GO ON WITH THE STORY

"Oh, we must have the air," Fay protested. "If you are cold in the night—"

"Night?" Laurel exclaimed with a little laugh. "It's almost morning!"

"Oh, Fay, dear, I'm so glad you don't care about—about Harry and me! There have been times when I almost hated you! Will you forgive me for being so horrid to you in my thoughts?"

Fay laughed.

"Of course, dear. I wish you and Harry all the happiness in the world. Good night."

It was nearly noon the next day when Martha opened the door softly and entered with the breakfast tray. Outside, the wind whirled thru the trees and a hard, driving rain started in at the open windows.

With a shiver the maid placed the tray upon the table and went over to close the windows. As she passed the bed upon which Fay lay the girl stirred sleepily and turned over, but did not awaken, and from the other bed there came no sound or movement.

The younger girl was lying on her side with one arm thrown up over her head, which was almost buried in the pillows, and her hair fell all over the side of the bed nearly to the floor.

Martha hesitated for a moment and then touched the bare arm lightly.

The next instant she had recoiled, for the arm was icy cold, and now for the first time she noticed that a strange bluish shade had crept over the fair skin!

Laurel's lips had fallen slightly apart, her eyes were half unclosed and showed a dead, glassy look to the other's horrified gaze, while over the piquant features, tinged with that same hideous bluish pallor, it seemed as though a hand had been passed, robbing them of all expression.

"Miss Laurel!" The words came in a strangled whisper from Martha's lips. "Miss Laurel, what is the matter? Speak to me!"

Her voice died away in her throat and she laid her trembling hand for a moment on the girl's breast. Then with a half-stifled cry she turned and fled from the room and down the stairs.

tioner, and he joined them in the Tudor car. They found Martha, the cook, and Louise awaiting them on the side porch.

In the meantime Fay, who had stirred at Martha's first entrance, found that sleep would not return to her. She sat up upon one elbow and called, "Laurel, softly, but, receiving no reply, decided that she would permit her cousin to sleep undisturbed.

Surely Laurel was lying in a peculiarly uncomfortable position! Her head was hanging so far over, and could it be that she was cold? There was a peculiar bluish tinge to the flesh of her arm.

Scarcely knowing what prompted the quick, half-suffocating sensation of alarm which caught her by the throat, Fay threw herself out of bed and approached that still figure.

Her work in the devastated regions of France had brought her into contact with death in so many violent, hideous forms that one glance sufficed to tell her the truth. With a wordless cry of horror she slipped unconscious to the floor.

"What is the matter, Martha?" the physician asked. "Frank tells me that Miss Laurel is dead."

"Yes, doctor! She is lying there just as she was asleep, until you got a glimpse of her face! It's all blue-like and horrible."

"Has Mrs. Tudor been awakened? Does she know?"

"I didn't dare! Will you come up now, sir?"

The doctor nodded and followed the girl upstairs to that silent room with the motionless figure upon the bed and the senseless one beside it.

"Hello, what have we here? Miss Fay must have been told. Help me lift her Martha. Is there a spare bedroom across the hall?"

"Yes, right next door to the one poor Mr. Wilbur used to occupy."

As the unconscious form was borne from the room the doctor bent over the body lying on the bed.

He straightened, and there was a peculiar hard glint in the direct gaze which he bent upon the servant.

"Is it the usual thing for Miss Laurel and her cousin to sleep together? They always share the same room?"

"Yes, since Miss Fay's return from France they have occupied this room together, just as they always did when they were little girls."

"Do they always sleep with the window closed like this?"

"No, wide open. I closed them myself when I brought the chocolate in this morning, because the rain was beating in frightfully."

"You are sure of that, Martha? You are positive that the windows were wide open all night?"

"Positive!" Martha gazed at him for a moment in astonishment, and then approached the nearest of the windows. "See, the carpet and curtains are still soaping wet, doctor. What has happened to Miss Laurel?"

"She is dead, Martha, and has been for some hours. I think I will go now and have a look at Miss Fay."

Fay had regained consciousness and was seated upon the side of the bed, wrapped in a dressing gown. Her hands were clasped tightly together and she was staring straight before her as the scarcely conscious of the presence of Barry and the sheriff, who hovered in the doorway. The latter turned to the physician. "Anything suspicious about it, doctor? Anything in my line of work?"

"Yes. That peculiar bluish tinge which has suffused the entire surface of skin. We find that usually in cases of asphyxiation, an hypothesis manifestly impossible in this instance, since there was no illuminating or coal gas in the room, the windows were wide open, and the other occupant, Miss Fay, here, seems to have been quite unaffected."

Doctor Green drew a chair up to the bedside and possessed himself of one of Fay's cold, listless hands. "My dear, what can you tell me of this? Did anything disturb you during the night?"

"Nothing. It was quite late, nearly morning when the dance broke up and the guests left. Being in mourning, you know, I did not appear, but the lights and music and general bustle kept me awake, and when Laurel came upstairs we had quite a long talk. She was in the very best of health and spirits, doctor; in fact, I remember that she said she had never been so happy before in all her life! Has Aunt Clara been told?"

"No, and it must be done immediately. Do you feel strong enough to go to her?"

Fay hesitated, but only for a moment. Then the old indomitable spirit came to her rescue.

"I will go, Doctor Green."

The girl went slowly down the hall and opened her aunt's door.

"Why, Fay, how you startled me! Is anything the matter? Is Laurel ill?"

Fay took both her aunt's trembling hands in hers.

"Not ill, dear. You must be brave, and let me tell you. Laurel died in her sleep."

"My God!" The slim hands were torn from Fay's grasp and seized her shoulders in a viselike grip. "You cannot know what you are saying, Fay! There must be some hideous mistake. Not Laurel!"

"Yes, Aunt Clara! Doctor Green is here, and the sheriff. Will you see them?"

"The sheriff! Why, what does it all mean?" She retreated to the bed, sinking down upon it with her tearless eyes gazing into space. "Ask Doctor Green to come to me, Fay. And then I—I should like to be alone."

Fay closed the door softly and went down the hall to where the doctor waited with the young police official from the city.

Home-made Remedy Stops Coughs Quickly

The best cough medicine you ever used. A family remedy easily and quickly made. Costs about $2.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough, is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt relief it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant, too—children like it—and it is pure and good.

Four 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Thus you make a full pint—a family supply—but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup.

And as a cough medicine, there is really nothing better to be had at any price. It goes right to the spot and gives you instant relief. It promptly heals the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and such your cough slowed at once. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, famous for healing the membranes. To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Get satisfaction or money refunded. The Pinex Co., St. Wayne, Ind.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Often Does That.—Read Mrs. Miner's Testimony

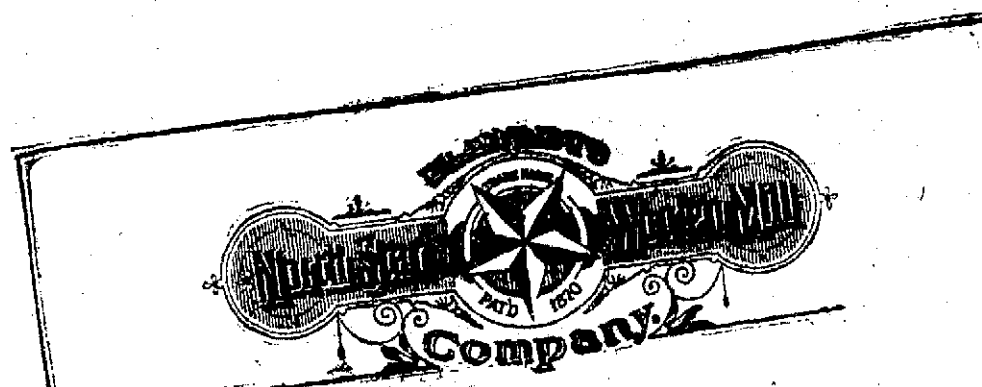

Chubbuck, N. Y.—"I was under the doctor's care for over five years for backache and had no relief from his medicine. One day a neighbor told me about your Vegetable Compound and I took it. It helped me so much that I wish to advise all women to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for female troubles and backache. It is a great help in carrying a child, as I have noticed a difference when I didn't take it. I thank you for this medicine and if I ever come to this point again I do not want to be without the Vegetable Compound. I give you permission to publish this letter so that all women can take my advice."—Mrs. FRED MINER, Box 102, Chubbuck, N. Y.

It's the same story over again. Women suffer from ailments for years. They try doctors and different medicines, but feel no better. Finally they take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and you can see its value in the case of Mrs. Miner.

That's the truth of the matter. If you are suffering from any of the troubles women have, you ought to try this medicine. It can be taken in safety by young or old, as it contains no harmful drugs.

Blankets will stay soft and fleecy washed this way, says famous woolen manufacturer

Lever Bros. Co.,
Cambridge, Mass.

Gentlemen:

We picked out several of our finest blankets and had them washed in Lux. Each blanket was given the number of launderings it would normally receive.

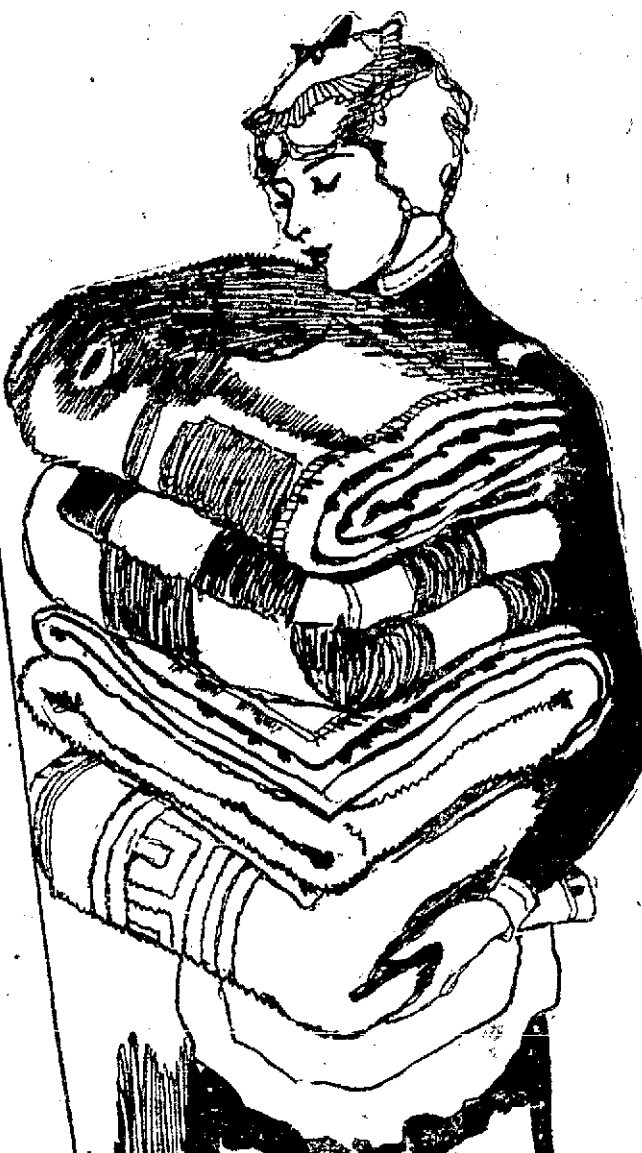

The blankets were still soft and fleecy at the end of the washings. They showed no signs of yellowing or spotting and the colored stripes and fancy borders did not run.

There was a complete absence of the little balls of matted wool that make a blanket lumpy in texture. Washing with a strong soap will mat woolens in this way.

We attribute the satisfactory results we obtained with Lux only in part to the fact that its flake form does away with rubbing. Even more important to our minds is its absolute purity and mildness. It will cleanse the finest woolen with entire safety.

Very truly yours,

WALLY REID IS THE VICTOR IN INVISIBLE BOUT

(BY ESTHER WAGNER)

WHO is this fellow, Philip B. Rosen? Ever hear of him? He directed Wally Reid in "The World's Champion." That's as much as I know about him, but for that one job he should receive some enduring praise.

A boulder built on the architectural lines of Jess Willard knocked Wally Reid down three times in that film. Of course, you know that before the fade-out Wally will have squared matters with him.

Wally returns after five years, the champion middle-weight fighter of the world. The big fellow invites him outside.

Wally takes off his ring, sticks it in his waistcoat and goes forth to battle. There's where Rosen did the heroic thing—he didn't show that scene in which Wally overwhelmed his heavy adversary.

Wally returns, smooths his hair, rubs his ring and whistles a little tune. The heavyweight is carried in on a door by six formal attendants.

The director leaves it to your imagination as to whether Wally wore brass knuckles or belabored the fellow with a dry pin.

That's more judgment than has been used by the directors who have had Wally knocking out contenders to Pompey's crown in other pictures.

PLUNGES STOPPED BY BANKERS

Reckless Promotions Are No Longer Indulged In

ALL RETURNING TO SANITY

Workers, Too, Taking Sensible View of Things

(BY B. C. FORBES)

NEW YORK — (Special) — Yes, we are all moving back towards sane business, in labor, in finance, in securities—even in politics.

Just as many business men went after unreasonable profits during the boom, so many workers tried to get fancy wages for little work. But did you notice that the bankers, masons and plasterers of Chicago have just signed an agreement that hereafter they will not receive more than a full day's work for a full day's work. In other lines labor is working more sensibly, knowing that loafing and idling employees are no longer tolerated.

In the financial world sane conditions are again ruling. Reckless promotions are no longer indulged in by bankers. Exorbitant rates are not now charged for money. All borrowers are no longer given the cold shoulder. New bond issues are now handled on reasonable terms.

After years' raging violently from one extreme to the other, prices for agricultural products are now moving towards a rational level. Wheat and corn have recovered more than 40 per cent from their too-low level of last year. Wheat is back to around $1.50 a bushel at Chicago or practically the price it ruled at this time last year. Corn is now quoted above 70 cents a bushel, almost near last year's figures. Both these basic commodities are commanding the best prices since the 1921 crops began to come into the market. Cotton at 15 1/2 and 16 cents a pound is actually 50 per cent above the quotation of a year ago, and is not so very far from the "twenty cents a pound" mark aimed at by growers.

Stalling exchange again broke in a new ground this week, above $44 1/2 while francs, at comfortably above 9 cents, compare with the best quotation since 1919. Canadian exchange, at better than 98, is nearer par than it has been since 1919. The value of the twenty year defense Anglo-French alliance has doubtless had a helpful influence upon both French and British exchanges, but the movement was impressively upwards before Lloyd George and Poincare got together.

Bond prices are today at the highest average level in almost three years. The advance railway and industrial issues has been no less notable than the rise in both home and foreign government bonds. High records for the year have been reached week by week by bonds issued at such different parts of the compass as Switzerland and Japan, France and Belgium and Queensland, Denmark and Chile. The stock market, too, has stood up remarkably well in face of the uneasiness and unsettlement caused by the succession of failures among third-rate brokerage houses. In fact, the recent forward movement in stocks is occasionally described as "an old-fashioned bull market."

A survey of merchandise and commodity prices reveals that prices which ought to rise have been rising and that prices which ought to fall have been falling. The steel people now report an appreciable increase in business. The railroads record larger earnings and a distinctly heavier volume in traffic. Stores, as a rule, are doing neither an abnormally poor business, buyers it is the universal testimony, are acting very prudent.

Concerns which get cold feet and cancelled their advertising light and left are beginning to manifest a modicum of courage, especially as most of them discovered that it was poor business to stop selling efforts when orders were most needed. This, also is a sign of returning sanity. It will become more pronounced during the next few months, information obtained from publishers shows. It is not significant that one of the standard publications for women will come in its March issue the largest volume of advertising, in dollars and cents, ever carried by any publication.

Where you will find among people today a disposition to make the best of things. It was so a few months ago. Manufacturers, merchants, importers and others are willing to do business at a fair percentage of profit, and workers in most lines have accepted philosophically the changed wage conditions.

All these manifestations of sense and sanity augur well for healthier, better, more active business and better employment.

CHICAGO—Wheat averaged lower in price today during the early transactions. Downturns in quotations at Liverpool tended to weaken the market here and so too did reports that British milling requirements appeared to be filled up temporarily. Bulls, however, still contended that world importing countries are short of actual requirements. More than 1,000,000,000 bushels opening prices varied from unchanged figures to 1-2 lower with May 1.43-1.2 to 1.43-1.4 and July 1.20-1.2 to 1.20-2.4, were followed by a moderate setback all around, and then by a rally that in some cases went slightly above yesterday's finish.

Corn and oats were governed chiefly by the action of wheat. After opening unchanged to 3-5 lower, May 66-1-4, the corn market underwent a further sag, and then recovered. Oats started unchanged to 3-8 down, May 41-1-5 and declined a little more, but later scored a tiffing gain.

Scattered selling on the part of commission houses sent provisions downward in price notwithstanding an upturn in the value of hogs.

The wheat finish was strong, 1-3-4 to 1-2-1-2 net higher with May $1.46 to 1.46-1-4 and July $1.22-3-4 to 1.22-7-8 net higher, with May $1.46 to 1.46-1-4 and July $1.22-3-4 to 1.22-7-8.

The corn close was firm, 3-4 to 7-8 to 1-3-8 net higher, with May 67-1-8 to 67-1-4.

NEW YORK — A few special or selected issues were substantially higher at the opening of today's stock market, but leaders reflected further selling pressure, based in part on the trend of tax legislation at Washington. Chandler Motor 1 3-8 and General American Tank and Hartman, averaged one point advances, but secondary steels, equipments and foreign oils eased fractionally to 1-2 points, with tobacco and motion picture shares. Early quotations for the principal foreign exchanges were lower.

An unusual variety of obscure industrial and specialties figured in the more irregular dealings of the morning. Among these were British Empire Steel first preferred at a decline of 6 points. Steel and Tube preferred, United Drug declining 1 to 2-1/2 points. Low priced domestic oils, Crucible, Sloss-Sheffield and Studebaker also reacted. Partial rallies before noon accompanied the buying of Mexican oils, including Pan-American Petroleum. Junior rails again strengthened, especially Missouri Pacific preferred, Chicago and Illinois common and preferred and Rock Island, these rising 1 to 2-1/2 points. Call money opened at 3-4 per cent.

Stocks were dull and hesitant in the first half of today's session but improved later under lead of high grade transportation and steels. Sales approximated 750,000 shares. The closing was strong.

OIL OUTPUT JUMPS 400 BARRELS

Weekly Summary Given by American Petroleum Institute

NEW YORK—(Associated Press)—An increase of 400 barrels in the estimated daily average crude oil production of the United States for the week ended February 25, is shown in the weekly summary of the American Petroleum Institute. The total daily average production was 1,410,450 barrels. The largest increase shown for a major district was that of about 7,000 barrels daily in Oklahoma.

There were no changes in crude oil prices of the major districts during the past week. Mid-continent crude is quoted at $2.00 a barrel; Pennsylvania crude at $2.25 a barrel, and Gulf Coast crude at $1.25 a barrel.

Significant features of the United States Geological Survey report of petroleum production in January, the summary says further, were the secondary of the daily average domestic production of 1,597,626 barrels, the highest ever reported and an increase of 11,550,000 barrels in domestic and Mexican oil stocks held in the United States, as compared with December 31, 1921. Imports into the United States in January averaged 422,474 barrels daily.

MUTT AND JEFF—NOW IT'S UP TO THE VOTERS OF THIS STATE—

BRINGING UP FATHER—

By McMAN

SHORT SHAVINGS

Cesar A. Boesel tells of an incident in a candy store, to which he was an eye witness.

A young humorist called three young women to observe his demonstration of vanishing cream.

He ordered a sundae and ate it in two minutes flat, Boesel states.

Herbert W. Langhorst, 219 Lincoln-st., tried to explain to several persons one evening during the skating season that the ice near the edge of a pond was safe.

"He jumped up and down on the ice to show how safe it was," a friend reports, "and on the third jump he went thru into the water."

Lehr E. Miller, real estate and insurance agent, helped a friend make out his income tax report.

Miller refused pay for the service. So the friend, wishing to return the favor, said: "Well, here's a theatre ticket I have never used."

It called for an admission to the Regent theatre, long ago closed.

Landlord William Haefer of the Argonne hotel, visited the city market where he became interested in looking over a stock of mushrooms.

"That's interesting fungi," said Haefer to the man in charge. The salesman was indignant. "Fungi nothing!" he said. "They're genuine mushrooms. I've ate 'em all my life."

A friend reports that Marie Stagger, a student of the junior high school, went to a restaurant with a girl friend, to get a lunch.

While they were eating, Miss Stagger is reported to have said to the waiter: "This coffee is nothing but mud."

"Yessum," said the waiter, "it was ground this morning."

Which is Larger the Sun or a Cent?

"Why—the sun of course" you will say. But remember—you can hold the cent so close to your eye that you lose sight of the sun. Some baking powders can be bought for a few pennies less than Calumet—but don't hold these cents too close to your eyes—you will not be able to see the quality—the purity—the dependability of

CALUMET BAKING POWDER

In other words, don't be deceived by a few pennies—the cheapest baking powder in price is often the most expensive.

When you buy Calumet you know that it will produce pure, sweet, and wholesome bakings. You know that you use less because it contains more than the ordinary leavening strength. Buy it—try it—be convinced.

A pound can of Calumet contains full 16 ounces. Some baking powders come in 12 ounce instead of 16 ounce cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.

FOOD LESSON NO. 1

Marvelous Quality of Milk Used in GOOD LUCK

On the famous Jelke dairy farm near Dundee, Ill., in the beautiful Fox River Valley—the most famed dairy district in the world—is a herd of pure bred, pedigreed Holstein cows.

Holstein cows are the best milk producers in the bovine world, and these cows are aristocrats of their kind.

Scientific methods of feeding, modern dairy equipment and all the arts of the modern milk-producer unite to make their milk of perfect quality.

It is milk from these cows and from similar herds on adjoining farms, for which the Jelke Dairy Farm serves as a model, that forms an important part of the most remarkable food product on the market today—Jelke GOOD LUCK.

It is because of the purity—the care taken in the selection of its nutritious ingredients, and the delicious flavor that you should use

Cocoanut Oil Makes A Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Multisilf cocoanut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely greaseless), is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this can't possibly injure the hair. Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two teaspoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanses the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Multisilf cocoanut oil shampoo at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.
